

London calling !! London calling !!

Hist. 276: *Egypt in the U.K.

May 22 — June 2, 2010

$3,886.00 *inclusive

(plus 3-credit course tuition for registered students only)

A TRAVEL / EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE AND COURSE FOR CREDIT

CONDUCTED BY

DR. ANTHONY R. SANTORO

DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR OF HISTORY AND PRESIDENT *EMERITUS

AND

DR. MARIO D. MAZZARELLA

PROFESSOR OF HISTORY

Repeating their three successful summer trips together of 2008, 2007 and 2005, Dr. Santoro and Dr. Mazzarella are leading an 11-day (10 sleeping nights) stay in London including two out - of - London daytrips — one to Stonehenge, Salisbury, and Bath, and the other to Cambridge (with a private tour of the Egyptian antiquities collection of the Fitzwilliam Museum conducted by the Curator of Egyptian Antiquities). London is a 24/7 city. Visit all the important London sites — The British Museum Egyptian and Elgin Marbles collections (with private lectures conducted by British Museum Egyptologists in the monumental storage rooms and Egyptian antiquities research rooms not open to the public); special tour of the Houses of Parliament and a private meeting with a Member of the House of Commons; Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace; Tower of London; Imperial War Museum; National Portrait Gallery; Tate Galleries; London Eye Observation Wheel; Victoria & Albert Museum; National Gallery; London theatre & nightlife — shopping at famous department stores and antique markets — Roundtrip airfare from Washington Dulles Airport, bus and subway passes, museum and attraction entrance fees, and daily breakfast included at St. Giles Hotel in the heart of London's Bloomsbury district near the British Museum. Farewell banquet at London's Savoir Faire Restaurant. English High Tea in Yorktown before departure.

This September 14, 2009, announcement supersedes all previous announcements.

For questions or more information, please contact Dr. Santoro by email at santoro@cnu.edu or by phone at (757) 594-7709 or contact Dr. Mazzarella by email at mazz@cnu.edu or by phone at (757) 594-7187